Other news

Sunday Services Whilst in Lockdown We would just like to confirm that our Sunday services will continue to happen as usual at 9.30am, 11.30am and 6.30pm. Bookings for the services will open each week on a Monday and will remain so until Saturday at 3.00pm. Sadly, we will not be able to meet in groups outside after the church service. We will continue to think of ways that may help us as a church family make the most of meeting face to face after services. Of course, you are free to go for a short walk with another person after church. You could arrange this ahead of time. Also, it will still be possible to chat to one other person or family after the service. The elders and their wives, as well as the staff team, will be available. If they can be of any help, then do have a chat with one of them after the service. The elders encourage all who are able to attend to continue to book into the services. As restrictions look like continuing on for a few more months at a minimum, we do believe it is a real benefit to worship in person for those who are able. We will continue to do our best to maintain a safe environment for all who attend. Midweek activities will continue on Zoom. Can we just remind everyone attending services to bring very warm clothing as we will need to keep the hall ventilated and that will impact the temperature inside the building. Thanks.
